Homeowner's policies generally include sub-limits for some personal property such as jewelry, firearms, collections, fine arts, musical or sporting equipment. In the event of a theft claim, the company only pays up to the sub-limit. If you have any one item or collection valued at more than $2000 we recommend insuring each piece for its replacement value. An appraisal or receipt would be needed for jewelry; otherwise, a description of the item to be scheduled with the desired value will work.
